

Kids Are Heroes Week! 2010

WHEN:

Week of October 18th, 2010

WHERE:

Your School in Frederick County, MD

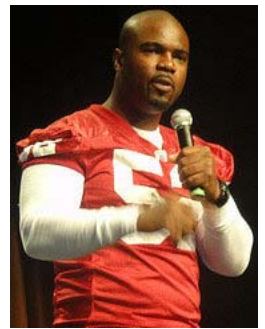

WHAT:

We are previewing our annual Kids Are Heroes Day at the Francis Scott Key Mall here in Frederick by offering two very inciteful and inspiring speakers during this wonderful week. Kids Are Heroes Day will take place on Saturday, October 23rd, from 10AM-4PM at center court of the mall. Kids from the Kids Are Heroes web site will be there talking about their charities and engaging your children. There will be activities all day for kids of all ages.

SPECIAL GUEST:

Levar Fisher www.levarfisher.com

Kids Are Heroes partner Levar Fisher played in the NFL from 2002-2004 for the Arizona Cardinals, then in 2005 was signed by the New Orleans Saints. Levar is now a motivational speaker reaching out to kids of all ages. He talks about not letting go of your dreams, of making the right decisions and encourages kids to become heroes. He tailors his speeches to be appropriate to the age delivered. Levar, whose fee is normally over $2000, is offering a special to schools in our area this week only for $500.

SPECIAL GUEST:

Diana Onyonyi

Diana is a hero from the Kids Are Heroes web site. She is a 15-year-old student traveling all the way from Nairobi, Kenya to be with us on Kids Are Heroes Day. Diana raised over $87K USD for the Karura School, helping them build a dormitory and a library. She also recently had a small role in the ratification of the new constitution of Kenya! Diana also has varied topics related to charitable giving depending on the age group. There will be no additional fee for Diana's presence.

About Kids Are Heroes

Kids Are Heroes is a local non-profit that showcases children who do amazing things for others with no consideration of their own benefit. They do this not for the recognition, as the kids do not crave it, but more to prove to families that kids can change the world and to encourage them to join in.
